

“COMMUNITY FORUMS” SET
AS FIVE FINALISTS ARE CHOSEN
FOR NEXT SUPERINTENDENT OF YOUNGSTOWN CITY SCHOOLS

The 25 – member Search Committee, assigned to help choose the next Superintendent for the Youngstown City School District, has narrowed the field of candidates from 31 to 5. The School Board President, Anthony Catale is announcing a series of “Community Forums” that will take place at Choffin Career & Technical Center, 200 E. Wood Street. On the following dates, after having met with Dr. Webb and her cabinet; toured facilities and met building principals; had dinner; been interviewed by both the School Board and Academic Distress Commission; each candidate will, on their respective night, get a chance to address the community and field questions. Each meeting is scheduled for 7:00pm: and The Five Candidates are as Follows: (in chronological order of their appearance)

- (Monday, Aug. 23) CHRISTINA DINKLOCKER, Ed. D (U. of Akron), Deputy Superintendent, Parma City School District.
- (Wed. Aug. 25) PAMELA BROWN, Ed. D (Harvard U.), Interim Chief Academic Officer, Philadelphia School District.
- (Mon. Aug. 30) TIMOTHY DORTCH, Ph. D (U. of Akron), Director of Student Services, Kent City School District.
- (Tues. Aug. 31) THOMAS ROBEY, M.A. (Ohio St. Univ.), Superintendent, Campbell City School District.
- (Wed. Sept. 1) CONNIE HATHORN, Ph. D (Iowa St. Univ.), Executive Director of Student Support, Akron City School District.

For further information, please contact John T. Allen, Ombudsman for School / Community Relations @ 330-744-6931.

8-19-10